

MAY 2016...

Project P I G H is completed!

P I G H is the 5th Gashunters album and is filled with full throttle prog pop!

On this album the Gashunters sound is extended with contributions from friend and guitar virtuoso Dani Rogosic.

8 tracks and almost 35 minutes of quite energetic music are produced by two friends in music, who clearly had a lot of fun recording this appetizing variety of pop/rock songs.

P I G H stands for 'Plug In Guitar Hybrid' and that covers it all: extended prog pop from the lowlands, preferably enjoyable on a high volume level.

So, play on, or better (quote Bob Dylan) ... "PLAY IT FUCKIN' LOUD!"

© 2008 Gashunters

No one ever came so close
You were always like a rose Thorns would make one hesitate
No, not me, I could hardly wait

I touched you with my bare hands
Thinking I'd rather take this chance
And the rose came to bloom because of you I'm so sorry sometimes red turns to blue

When I feel this way, it's because I love you
When I feel this way...
When I run away.....I love you
After all this time you still can't believe After all this time still filled with grief
Beyond all defences built along the years
Lies a world you can't see through your tears

And you're afraid, you're so afraid

When I feel this way, it's because I love you
When I feel this way, it's because I love you
When I run away.....I love you

Guitars: Dani Rogosic
Music, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts
Lyrics: Astrid Rhemrev

Never imagined how love would be How could you anyway you never felt free
I knew how to handle and to touch
You're still not ready for this love so much

I wanna hold you when you're sad
Kiss and soothe your aching head
I wanna take your worries for a while Till your gloom turns back into a smile

I don't know how, I don't know how But remember, please remember

When I feel this way, it's because I love you
When I feel this way...

I think it's time you get to understand
You should take the rose.....
.....with your own bare hands

LETTING GO

Feels like I'm leaving myself
But I can't stay
I have to let go
Just letting go, letting go, letting go

The pain I feel inside is no excuse for the hurt I put you through The nights I lie awake broken and bruised don't make up for the torture I do

Shattered dreams and crushing pain
Silence all around, I can't explain
Lost my tongue my mouth is closed
This wall so high, and you're opposed

And it feels like I'm leaving myself
But I can't stay, I have to let go
Just letting go, letting go, letting go
Letting go, letting go, letting go

Sneaky changes along the way
Building labyrinths day after day
Now my heart is wandering about Lost its home, lost and in doubt

Guitars: Dani Rogosic
Music, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts
Lyrics: Astrid Rhemrev

This pain, you can't imagine
This need, you don't understand
I won't bother to explain
I know you can't comprehend

Shattered dreams and crushing pain
Silence all around, I can't explain
Lost my tongue my mouth is closed
This wall so high, and you're opposed

And it feels like I'm leaving myself
But I can't stay, I have to let go
Just letting go, letting go, letting go
Letting go, letting go, letting go

Shattered dreams and crushing pain
Silence all around, I can't explain
Lost my tongue my mouth is closed
This wall so high, and you're opposed

TOO CLOSE TO THE SUN

Guitars: Dani Rogosic

Music, lyrics, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts

Never before there was any sign that you would leave the past behind Your intentions were unrenowned to me Nasty events were rising up unexpectedly

You are on the run
You are too close to the sun

Oh you could have made any other choice
Everything but leaving me in a white noise
You're the judge and the jury in your own trial Throw all your accusations on a pile
You may even play the hangman if you want But don't ask me to lay my head on the chopping block

You are on the run
You are too close to the sun

Kicking the sand in my face, running wild
Go your own way, deaf, dumb and blind
No looking back, you left the past behind

Only fast forward and no rewind
Straight to the chasm, not a single hindsight
Selective amnesia, a sinner's delight
Wax your wings and fly into the twilight
Please, just leave and disappear in the night

Build your own wings or any fly wright
Leave me in tears and go out of sight
You can't imagine the pain you caused
Our love and our lives are forever star-crossed

You are on the run
You are too close to the sun

Go your own way, deaf, dumb and blind
No looking back, you left the past behind
Only fast forward and no rewind
Straight to the chasm, not a single hindsight
Selective amnesia, a sinner's delight
Wax your wings and fly into the twilight
Please, just leave and disappear in the night

LOVE TO REWIND

Guitars: Dani Rogosic

Music, lyrics, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts

We both know that I have really tried
You put me in an emotional roller coaster ride
There's no limit to the pressure on my heart
I can hardly breathe for my part
I need some air to get down to my own Sometimes I want you to leave me alone

You're always counting all the tears you cried
You live in sanctity but you never really tried
No, it never ever crossed your mind
that I was drowning, you must be blind
You'll have to listen and open your eyes
Give it a try, for our love to rewind

Our love needs a fresh shake-up
We'll both climb the mountaintop
No, we will never give up

Can't we stop before it all gets lost
Why keep going on the struggle at all cost
Please grab my hands, see my grief,
nab my needs, feel my pain
I'm always working on composure of your soul
Trying to please you in a perpetual stroll

I'll grab your hands, I'll see your grief
I'll nab your needs, I'll feel your pain

No, it never ever crossed your mind
that I was drowning, you must be blind
Give it a try, for our love to rewind
Our love needs a fresh shake-up
We'll both climb the mountaintop
No, we will never give up

Can't we stop before it all gets lost
Why keep going on the struggle at all cost
Please grab my hands, see my grief,
nab my needs, feel my pain
I'm always working on composure of your soul
Trying to please you in a perpetual stroll
I'll grab your hands, I'll see your grief
I'll nab your needs, I'll feel your pain

Our love needs a fresh shake-up
We'll both climb the mountaintop
No, we will never give up

A NEW ODYSSEY

Guitars: Dani Rogosic

Music, lyrics, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts

Who has seen the signs?
Who will light the fire?
It's turning soon to the dark side of the moon Deaf and blind, whole mankind
Dare to see truth, or rather close your eyes

Turn around and around
to hear a new sound
Make it so loud
that people have to join and shout
Turn around and around
to hear a new sound
A new odyssey is round and about

Face reality, no more talking smooth Look inside, to the side or into the dark side of the moon
It's time to decide
Will you run or fight?
Reveal yourself,
who are you?

Watching the skies
Leaking the lies
Joining the wise
Are you the one
to clean up the dens
to tear down the fence
to start a new dance
Are you the one
to clean up the dens
to tear down the fence
to start a new dance

It's time to decide
Will you run or fight?
Reveal yourself,
who are you?

to hear a new sound
Make it so loud
that people have to join and shout
Turn around and around
to hear a new sound
A new odyssey is round and about

THE CURSE

© 2011 by Cashhunters. All rights reserved.

In the morning in the shower you wash all the nightmares away Wrap your body in the towel feel strong to face this new day She's in the kitchen making you breakfast while your kids are still in bed

You turn on the radio and the newsman says the world has gone mad and your coffee's getting cold

When you're driving to the office in your fast and comfy car You still see the headline and read the story about the war Same as all the other stories black on white before your eyes

So you turn on the CD player for some music and good feeling and some lies and you think you're getting old

Daytime's not the right time
Daytime's getting worse
Daytime's turned into fright time
Daytime is a curse

By now your kids must be at school you think that's a safe place to be Right now somebody's acting cool convinced his act will set him free

Straightening his jacket and his hair looking at the blood he shed

Guitars: Dani Rogosic
Music, vocals and all other instruments: Hans Geurts

The gun still smoking in his hand only fourteen years old he's gone completely mad and your heart is getting cold Five o'clock the job is done
Dinner's waiting
But your appetite has gone

Daytime's not the right time
Daytime's getting worse
Daytime's turned into fright time
Daytime is a curse
Late night news on your TV screen
The views far away look so clean Too small to fight against his old man he was out for any revenge Against rape and raising hands his baby brothers had no defence
The only way out was to all burn in hell

The newsman's face is set as he tells the story about a family that's gone mad and you wish you were old

And you long for the night you long for your bed to rest your head and close your eyes and you think you're getting mad

Daytime's not the right time
Daytime's getting worse
Daytime's turned into fright time
Daytime is a curse

QUESTIONS

© 2017 Gashunters. All rights reserved.

Ask a man if he wants war
He'll answer you No, no more Ask a man if he wants to kill He'll answer you No, I never will Ask a man if he wants to die
He'll answer you No, not I

Ask a man if he wants to offer his child or wife
He'll answer you Never shall I offer any life
Well, then tell me why millions
still endure each days horror
Why we watch it every night
and we don't bother

Questions, questions, questions, questions

Is there any religion that doesn't preach peace
The answer is No
Is there any religion
that doesn't preach love
The answer is No

Guitars: Dani Rogosic
Music, vocals and all other Instruments: Hans Geurts
Lyrics: Astrid Rhemrev

Well, then tell me why millions still endure religious horror
Why we watch it every night
and we don't bother

Ask the world to stop hating
Is like asking clouds to stop raining
Ask the world to stop the fight
Is like asking the sun to shine at night
Ask the world to start sharing
Is like asking God to start caring

Questions, questions, questions, questions

Ask a man if he wants to offer his child or wife
He'll answer you Never shall I offer any life
Well, then tell me why millions
still endure each days horror
Why we watch it every night
and we don't bother
Questions, questions,
questions, questions, ...
